Core Value: Harvest: Seeds of Generosity

Day 1	Day 2	Day 3	Day 4
Slide 3	Slide 4	Slide 5	Slide 6

Courage in every step, Faith in every journey.

Opening Prayer

Dear God,

Thank you for the harvest and for all the food, people and gifts we have received. Help us to show respect for one another, for our world, and for all those who work to provide what we need.

We ask this in Jesus' name,

Amen.

Day 1- Harvest: Seeds of Generosity

Respect & Gratitude

“Harvest thanksgiving is a time to be thankful for what we have. For food, family, friends, homes and opportunities.

But gratitude should lead us to think about others too.”

What is Respect?

Respect means recognizing the value of someone or something and treating it well.

If we respect food, we don't waste it.

If we respect people, we value them.

If we respect our community, we notice when people need help.

Think About This For 2 Minutes:

- What do you have that you sometimes take for granted?
- Who might not have the same things?
- What could you share?

Challenge:

Respect what you have. Notice what others need. Share what you can.

Day 2 Harvest: Seeds of Generosity

The Good Samaritan

Bible story: Luke 10:25–37

A man was attacked and left injured by the road. Two people saw him but walked past.

Then a Samaritan stopped. He cared for the injured man, took him somewhere safe and paid for his care.

Jesus said:

“Go and do likewise.”

Think About This:

The Samaritan gave his time, money, attention and care.

Generosity isn't just about money. It's about noticing someone who needs help and choosing to do something.

Challenge:

Who might need you to stop and help this week?

Day 3 Harvest: Seeds of Generosity

Marcus Rashford

Story:

In 2020, footballer Marcus Rashford used his platform to campaign for children who were at risk of going without free school meals during the COVID-19 pandemic.

He used what he had, his voice and influence to draw attention to what other people needed.

His story reminds us:

You don't have to have everything to give something.

You might have money, time, skills, possessions, or simply a voice that can speak up for someone.

Think About This:

“What do I have that I could use to help someone else?”

Challenge:

Use what you have to help someone who needs it.

Day 4 Harvest: Seeds of Generosity

The Seed — John 12:24

Scripture sound bite:

“Unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds.”

— John 12:24

Reflection Time:

A seed has potential, but it has to be given up and planted for something to grow.

Generosity is similar.

Sometimes we have to let go of our money, possessions, time or comfort so that something good can grow for someone else.

30-Second Challenge:

Think quietly:

“What seed of generosity could I plant this week?”

It could be donating food, giving your time, helping someone, sharing something or simply showing kindness.

Final thought to take away:

A kept seed stays dormant and hidden, but a planted seed transforms into new life and growth.

Closing Prayer

Dear God,
Thank you for bringing us together today. Help us to remember the blessings of the harvest and to show respect, kindness and gratitude in all that we do.
May we care for each other and for our world.
We ask this in Jesus' name,
Amen.
